

Terrygram

No 1 A Cutting Comment by 'Yokel'

Solving the clues and entering them in the correct places in the grid will produce a well-known Rattigan line (four words) in the shaded column. The clues are in no particular order except the first three which start the quote. These answers could spell HAVING STONEWALL. All the answers are linked to Terence Rattigan, his plays or productions of his plays. Most answers can be verified in Darlow. Two answers are hyphenated, one is an acronym.

1. Dickie actor Roman street (7)
 2. _____, knees and booms - d-light (4)
 3. Sloth-ZERO-torpor or lazy-NILL-supine (think Wimbledon) (4)
- Monologue + monologue = short one hander (8)
Drink for Ross (8)
Sylvia's theatre is a standard one (9)
Actor laddie near Portsmouth? (7)
L.A Angel wasted is US 'Man' (7)
Postal orderer? search here about (6,4)
Crock Erick Orson for model (4,6)
Thameside gifter. Need water? You must bend down! (6)
Home - also screenplay with 'diamond' around the clock (8)
Hester's ran out by a length so I hear (5)
Far up (1,1,1,1)
Ducal london residence (6)
Nelson's legatee (6)
Drink of chequered servant maybe (12)
Drama fee on two for one offer (8)
First Major sort of 'enactor prim' (4,7)
Bleats knocked out one at a time (6)