

Terry gram

No 5 On the Street Where you Live by Yokel

Solving the clues and entering the answers in the correct place in the grid will result in a well known London thoroughfare (two words) appearing in the shaded column. The clues are in no particular order - except that the first three all start with the same letter and come together in the grid. These three answers could spell A! A FAT GROSS QUICHE THAT All the answers relate to Terence Rattigan in one way or another. Ignore one question mark.

1. Smokin director bird (7)
2. Butt onto Scottish farm first in Deep Blue Sea (8)
3. Critic is stone, James (5)
4. Seventies trouser leg illumination (5)
5. Adventurous mathematician from exercise and a mixture of my olo. (7)
6. Dry eyed lingo producer fiddled barely (6)
7. Enigmas, well just one if you don't mind Edward (9)
8. Biographer el lawns translated (7)
9. All untoward but accommodates a stage couple (4)
10. Version of what Oxo or Bisto are for (8)
11. First colour of Greene's Brighton villain? Just a shade. (6)
12. Dance ad sex dupe for play (3,2,4)
13. A part of USDAW? "Nay mate. I'm a princess by George." (6)
14. Words for a theatre not Fortune (5)
15. A trip. Solo? Certainly not. (7)
16. Sykes' Brown is princely scene stealer (6)
17. Dmitri or Anatole will do (2,8)

Soultion to Puzzle Number Four overleaf

Clues

1. She's celibate? Sounds like it! (4) Nunn
2. Director from Albert or Festival or Drill or Assembly (4) Hall
3. Promoted 'Soldiers' our Ken did! (5) Tynan suggested Soldiers be performed at NT
4. Happiness is a play called? (6) Hamlet (Advert slogan)
5. Larry's try out place? Went all round aboard a vivacious vessel did Francis. (10) Chichester
6. Cast off for hut (4) Shed
7. Not Lloyds, not North (5,4) South Bank
8. An old reliable play sort of row share ran and ran (3,5) War Horse (Anag)
9. He wanted more. LO - he got an I (7) Olivier
10. It's a battle for nearest station (8) Waterloo
11. Atlas Duncan carries architect (6) Lasdun
12. Rub Tail St design for 'national' style (9) Brutalist
13. Humph! He hadn't a clue (9) Lyttleton
14. Commie resting place for crock actor (8) Redgrave
15. Superior espresso - spot of this puzzle (5,6) Upper Ground